DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. Claims 18-26 and 42-47 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ramaswamy, US, 6,423,892, in view of Ronning, US 5,883,954.

Ramaswamy discloses a portable communication device, e.g MP3 player, comprising input for receiving a sampled portion of a full audio work, a database operative to store therein audio works, e.g. content sites, and downloads the audio to the device. Ramaswamy does not specifically disclose comparison information.

Ronning discloses, e.g. Figs. 3, 4a, 5, 7, 8, 10, 15, 17, 18, 20, comparison sampling audio works for use in identifying full audio works from a database operative to store therein audio works.

To have provided a comparison sampling for Ramaswamy would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art in view of Ronning. The motivation for having done such would have been using common knowledge sampling of audio works before purchasing such.

Applicant's REMARKS have been reviewed, but are moot in light of the new grounds of rejection.

It is further noted that intended use claim language, e.g. for use in, is given less patentable weight than positively recited claim language, e.g. a portable communications device.

2. Further references of interest are noted on the attached PTO-892.

Conclusion

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
